

LEGEND

RESIDENTIAL

- Ranchette Estate (0-1.0 du/ac, mid range .5 du/ac)
- Very Low Density (1.1-3.0 du/ac, mid range 2.0 du/ac)
- Low Density (1.1-5.0 du/ac, mid range 3.0 du/ac)
- Medium Density (5.1-11.0 du/ac, mid range 8.0 du/ac)
- High Density (11.1-20.0 du/ac, mid range 15.5 du/ac)
- Very High Density (20.1-30.0 du/ac)

COMMERCIAL

- General Commercial
- Regional Commercial

OFFICE

- Professional Office
- Mixed-Use Business Park
- Mixed-Use: Business Park, Residential, Commercial

INDUSTRIAL

- Industrial

DOWNTOWN

- Downtown (Mixed Use)

PUBLIC LAND

- Public Facility
- Park
- Future Park Location (Proposed)

SCHOOLS

- Community College
- Existing School
- Future School Location (Proposed)

OTHER

- Urban Reserve
- Agricultural Conservation
- Permanent Open Space
- Semi-Public
- Downtown Specific Plan Boundary
- Sphere of Influence
- Urban Limit Line
- Future Fire Station

City of Brentwood
Land Use Map
Adopted November 27, 2001

Updated: January 6, 2009

ADOPTED BY CITY COUNCIL

Date: November 27, 2001 Ordinance #: 695

AMENDED BY CITY COUNCIL

Date	Resolution #	Date	Resolution #
11-25-2003	3038
4-13-2004	Ord. 776
10-12-2004	2004-245
6-14-2005	2005-144
8-23-2005	2005-212
11-16-2005	2005-276

Disclaimer: This parcel-based map is a staff-generated map that shows conceptual parcel boundaries in relation to the official General Plan map. The 2001 General Plan map and subsequent amendments are to be consulted for the official determination of a property's General Plan designation.

Note: Northeast portion of Planning Area extends to Eixler Road. Land Use Designation is Agricultural Conservation, consistent with the County General Plan. Southeast portion of Planning Area extends to Camino Diablo and Vasco Road. Land Use Designation is Agricultural Conservation, consistent with the County General Plan.

Note: Future fire stations, parks and school sites are not shown in exact locations.